Trailing 13-8 in the first set of the semifinal, the Lady Minutemen scored the final seven points behind the serving of Jacinda Eskander (Willowbrook) and the consistent hitting of Hannah Schuster (Willowbrook) and Lauren Diddia (Woodridge).

Trailing again in the second set, 12-6, the Lady Minutemen rallied to take the lead 13-12 on the serve of Diddia. Tied 13-13, Marquette won the final two frantic rallies to advance to the championship match against South Side Baptist School of Oak Lawn, who had defeated Marquette twice during the regular season.

In the championship match, the Lady Minutemen were led by the consistent attack of captains Stephanie Woods (Westchester) and Joanna Schlagel (Downers Grove), and won the title match 25-21, 25-16. Marquette finished their championship season with a record of 13-3.
